

Lenten Online Bible Study

Journey with The Saint John's Bible

The University of Notre Dame's McGrath Institute for Church Life offering an exclusive online course on The Saint John's Bible, a handwritten, hand-illuminated Bible which was created through Saint John's University in Collegeville, Minnesota. The * course, Journey with The Saint John's Bible, is free and will be divided into six units and is scheduled to launch on Ash Wednesday, February 26, 2020.

The course addresses the role of art in Christian life, the tradition of illuminated manuscripts, and unpacks several illuminations from The Saint John's Bible along with the Scripture passages they depict. Five units will feature videos that explain the illuminations and selections from Scripture, and guided experiences of lectio and visio divina, offering viewers an opportunity to pray with Scripture and art.

Launching Ash Wednesday, February 26
Sign-up for FREE at <https://mcgrath.nd.edu/news/>